and it appearing to the Court from the evidence that the said defendant committed adultery as charged in complainants bill of complaint it is ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the complainant and the defendant be for naught held and that said complainant be divorced from said defendant and it is further ordered that said complainant pay the costs of this suit.

MACOUPIN CO. IL ARCHIVES CARLINVILLE, IL
SERIES Chancery
VOL. D PAGES 411

Francis M Reynolds
Bill for Divorce
Harriet Reynolds

September 28th 1866

And now comes the complainant by Woodson & Walker his solicitors and it appearing to the court that the said defendant was at the time of filing complainants bill in this cause a non resident of the state of Illinois and that publication of the pendency of this suit has been made according to law in the Carlinville Free Democrat a public newspaper printed and published weekly in the City of Carlinville County of Macoupin and state of Illinois and it further appearing to the Court that a subpoena in Chancery has been issued according to law and returned by the Sheriff of said county "the defendant not duely called came not and made default the evidence and being advised in the premises finds the allegations in complainants bill of complaint to be true and that the said defend ant on or about the tenth day of June AD 1863 wilfully deserted and absented herself from the said complainant without any reasonable cause and yet absents herself and remains away from the said complainant without reasonable cause It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the Court that the marriage between the complainant and the defendant be dissolved and the same is hereby dissolved accordingly and the complainant is hereby released therefrom, and it is further ordered that the complainant pay the costs of this suit.

Samuel S. Gilbert, commissioner &c

Bill to enforce Lien & for sale (October 12th AD 1866)

Jane Burns. & Charles A. Wacker, admrs of Matthew Burns decd Jane Burns, John Burns and Ann Burns

And now on this day for reasons shown to the court, it is ordered by the court that Julius G Koester Esqr who was appointed Special Master in Chancery herein at a former term of this court by the decree thereof to sell the premises described in said decree, make publication and resell the said premises and make report in writing to this Court &c